

---

For Candidates

By thedouble

Published: 11/30/2007 - 22:52

short: a

Would you dare to be part of one of the most original and challenging competitions in Europe? Would you be able to lead a multicultural team? Could you succeed in solving complex problems that require outstanding decision-making skills? If you answered yes to all of the above questions then The Double was made for you!

Why should you participate? Well, let's put some key reasons together. You should participate if:

- you want to meet top students from all over Europe
- you want to meet members of leading companies
- you want to get involved in investment banking or consulting
- you want to meet HEC faculty members
- you want to experience an innovative learning method
- you want to be in a fun atmosphere of heavy negotiations and discussions

And last, but certainly not least, because you do not want to miss out this once-in-a-lifetime experience!

Selection Process

Details will be published on the website during the month of February. For more information ask International Relations Office in your respective school.